

BIA FREE COMIC BOOK DAY IN DOWNTOWN CARLETON PLACE

FREE Comic Book Day is a Nationally Celebrated Event and you can participate in Carleton Place!

UNIQUE NEW EVENT, FREE Comic Book Day! Join the Carleton Place Carleton Place BIA in

Partnership with Read's Book Shop on Saturday May 5th from 11 am to 2 pm for a day that celebrates

Comics, Art, Literacy, meet Super Heroes and collect FREE Comic Books. It all starts and ends at Reads

Book Shop (click here for www.readsbookshop.com) located at 130 Lansdowne Avenue where you can get your bag, mission card and some other surprise goodies, you then will travel throughout the downtown visiting local participating businesses.

FREE Comic Book Day is expected to draw 1000's of people to downtown Carleton Place for the Day. Children and adults can meet some of their favorite Super Heroes on the streets of downtown Carleton Place. Make it a family event dress the part of your favorite Super Hero, bring your camera and take pictures, enjoy lunch. Make Downtown Carleton Place your Family Fun Destination on Saturday May 5th 11am-2 pm, for FREE Comic Book Day.

For more details contact cmcormond@carletonplace.ca 613-257-8049.

www.downtowncarletonplace.com

Head to Read's Book Shop to pick up a FCBD Passport!

